

October 10th
Volume 2, Issue 2

John Muir Times

Chief Editors: Elsa & Madison

Halloween!

By: Sadie & Raven

Halloween is just around the corner! Don't wait too long to get into the spirit and get your costumes. Some of the best places to get your costumes are at Spirit Halloween, Party City, Target, or just order online. We have also come up with a list of fun costumes to help you guys out if you want to do something with your friends!

Single Costumes

- Super Hero
- Candy (Tootsie, Candy Corn, M&M, etc.)
- Food (Hot Dog, Banana, etc.)
- Princesses
- Animals (Cat, Dog, Bunny, etc.)

Group Costumes

- Adventure Time
- The Walking Dead
- Ninja Turtles
- Harry Potter
- Disney
- Pac Man
- Avengers

Best Friends

- Salt & Pepper
- Thing One Thing Two (Cat in the Hat)
- PB & J (Peanut butter and Jelly)
- Mario Bros
- Crayons

Chief Editors:
Elsa &
Madison

Halloween Events

By: Emmerly

Happy Halloween

. Are you Ready for October fun? ~

Is your family lame? Don't know what to do for Halloween? Having trouble finding events for you and your family to attend? If you answered yes to any of these questions, then you must read this!!!!

- Events -

Want to scream your head off?

Go to Knott's scary farm! They have screamology experts!! The screaming season started on September 25, 2014 and will end November 01, 2014. So hurry and get your scream on!

Prices and tickets

(Season pass discount) 24 NIGHTS $65.00

(GENERAL SALE) 24 NIGHTS $75.00 INCLUDES OFFERS UNLIMITED EVENT ADMISSION.

Want to destroy the undead??

Want to experience the adrenalin from a front to front zombie combat?

Go to scream zone in Del mar! Del mar scream zone have more activities than just the zombie paintball safari. They have rides and food and a bunch of fun for the whole family.

Prices

Zombie paintball~

Triple haunt admission w/zombie paintball (good for one admission to the house of horror, the chamber & the haunted hayride) Plus zombie

paintball (includes 100 paintball pellets) = $52.00

Zombie paint (includes 100 paintball pellets) = $25.00

Pumpkin patches!!!!

Movies

By: Eva

!!!!!!!!!! Scary movies of the year !!!!!!!!!!

Hey guys! Halloween is coming up and there are new scary movies.

Here is a list of the movies that are already out or soon will be.

- ◆ Jessabelle
- ◆ Annabelle
- ◆ They deliver us from evil
- ◆ The pyramid
- ◆ Extraterrestrial
- ◆ And many more

I dare you to watch a scary movie on Halloween if you're tough enough.

Music

By: Alan

This week top 5 hits:

- ◆ Boom clap by Charli Xcx
- ◆ Stay with me by Sam Smith
- ◆ Map by Maroon 5
- ◆ Rude by Magic
- ◆ All about that bass by Meghan Trainor

These are the best songs yet!

Out of these five songs, what is your favorite?

Video Games

By: Marquez

Call of Duty, the biggest 1st Person Shooter franchise of all time, will release the next game on November 4, 2014. It will be an independent installment in the franchise, and will have a separate storyline than that of previous CoD game. The campaign storyline is in a plausible future created by the consequence today's military and technological use. Advanced Warfare was created by Sledgehammer Games, and the company focused on making a new feel for the CoD fan base as well as making a photorealistic game. Speaking of the graphics, Sledgehammer's art director Joe Salud said "The gamer's going to notice ... 'it looks like it's on TV!!' And then they're going to realize, 'Oh my God, that's a game.'" That's a pretty hefty promise to make such realistic graphics, and good game overall, but the company seems fairly confident in their abilities.

Sports

By: Kai

The Sports Guys

The hunt for October is heating up in the Baseball World. Teams have begun to punch their tickets for the postseason, with every day the playoff picture is becoming clearer, with teams we all expected to make the postseason, like the Angels, Dodgers, Cardinals, to the surprise team of the season, the Kansas City Royals, this MLB postseason is shaping up to be an exciting one.

Some big name strikers have found themselves on new teams, and they have had a chance to play their first few games, and get re-adjusted to the new system that they're in, some, doing better than others...

Kai's Corner

In the last edition, I did my predictions for the AFC, this time around, I am going to cover the NFC side of things. Let's start off on the east coast, and I'll make my way around. I am going to predict that the Eagles are going to come out of the East, their offense is just too high powered for most people to keep up with. The Packers are going to take the north, my reason is because, as Stephen A. Smith would say, that baaaaaaad man that is Aaron Rodgers, will lead the Pack to the postseason. The NFC South as a whole has looked mediocre, but I do believe that Drew Brees and that bad man that he is, can pick up the slack, and push the Saints to a division victory. Now, all we have left is the so called "toughest division" in football, the NFC West. Even though they have looked shaky, I have the Seahawks winning the West, but the Cardinals are going to be following close behind it's just too hard to go against the Legion of Boom. The teams I have winning the wild card spots, are the Arizona Cardinals, and the 49ers. I was tempted to choose the Cowboys, but I just can't trust Tony Romo to lead his team to the playoffs.

The Ten Ring

The Texas Shootout is finished, and some of the resident athletes from the Olympic Training Center right here in Chula Vista, did very well. Zachary Garrett, who I've shot with before, had a day he won't forget for a while. He won gold in the recurve men's singles, and he and two other male archers took silver in the men's team rounds. Butch Richard Johnson took the silver medal, and two more athletes from the Chula Vista Training Center competed for bronze. With Collin Klmitchek ultimately winning the bronze medal, Daniel McLaughlin gave it his best shot. On the women's side, Michelle Gilbert barely beat who is perhaps the most accomplished US archer of all time, Khatuna Lorig in the gold medal match. Again, two athletes from the Olympic Training Center in Chula Vista, competed in the bronze medal match. Mackenzie Brown faced La Nola Pritchard, with Brown winning in the end, took home the bronze medal. Overall, it was a good competition, and I'm glad that our resident athletes competed so well against the nations best.

Soccer

By: Allan

Javier "Chicharito" Hernandez only had 13 minutes to make an impression for Real Madrid's game versus Deportivo La Coruna. It's safe to say the Mexico international accomplished that goal. Chicharito scored his first two goals for the Blancos in an 8-2 win over the home side. In the 88th minute, Hernandez took a bouncing ball on the edge of the area and unleashed a stunning left-footed strike to open his account for the Madrid giants. Just before the final whistle, the Mexico striker's deflected shot from distance looped over the goalkeeper for his second.

Fashion Blog

By: Alondra

Latest Fashion Trends 2014

Get ready for chilly nights and transition to fall. According to ELLE, the best clothes to keep you warm are jackets, raincoats, and blazers. Now that the cooler temperatures are coming our way, a variety of jackets; starting with fur, leather, denim, and silk can make your outfit better. Check out the bright colored flannels to go with your casual like pair of jeans. When it comes to boots, any length is fine. You can wear ankle booties, warm UGG boots, and even over the knee boots. Don't forget that sweaters are the cold weather essentials because they will keep you nice and cozy.

World Current Events

By: Jake & Joe

SOUTH CHINA SEA TERRITORY DISPUTE

Fishing vessels of various South East Asian countries have clashed in the South China Sea over 9 different territory disputes. The countries of China, Brunei, Taiwan, Malaysia, The Philippines, and Vietnam all have claims to areas within the South China Sea. This argument has been ongoing for hundreds of years, but only recently has gone hot. Chinese surveys have (supposedly) discovered around 17.7 billion tons of crude oil. The majority of the conflicts have consisted of the smaller countries of the Philippines and Vietnam, trying to ward off aggressive Chinese vessels. These acts of territorial aggression on China's part have been akin to that of Russian aggression in Ukraine. As such, U.S. Allies in the South China Sea (Chiefly the Philippines and Taiwan) are looking to the U.S. to try and deter China from further aggression in regards to the South China Sea.

Isis

By: Joe

The Middle Eastern extremist group "ISIS" is claiming religious authority and control over all Muslims in Israel, Lebanon, Palestine, etc. and eventually all Muslims worldwide! Many nations see them as a terrorist group and have been accused of "grave human rights abuses". Surprisingly, this radical terrorist group has been around since 1999 originating from al-Qaeda founded by Osama bin Laden (responsible for 911) and eventually dying off. Al-Qaeda is being rebooted - now being called ISIS - and have constantly making threats to the U.S. as well as threatening the U.K., Canada, Russia and various cities in the west (including san Diego, san Francisco, etc.), and threatening Russian president Vladimir Putin, U.S. president Barack Obama and the Pope... the Pope himself. But.....take all of this with a grain of salt. The west (U.S. & U.K.) have bombed the areas of known locations of where the group might be located. The fight is not over yet.